Summer Schools

Warwick Summer School in London at St Mary's University

<https://www2.warwick.ac.uk/about/london/study/warwick-summer-school/2018>

The Warwick Summer School 2018 in collaboration with St Mary's University is hosted in the iconic capital city at London's only self-contained campus university, a location which is hard to beat. The Summer School is a unique combination of learning and debating with renowned academics and guest speakers, networking and enjoying a fun and engaging social programme. It provides a chance to study with a top UK Russell Group University whilst living alongside your peers in the beautiful leafy suburb of Strawberry Hill, with easy access to central London.
