WELCOME TO COSMOPOLITAN FICTIONS: PART ONE

This module examines the depiction of the colonial and the postcolonial in fiction. We will begin with an introduction covering the aforementioned concepts. The rest of the module is devoted to discussions of the following novels: Foe by J.M. Coetzee, Arrow of God by Chinua Achebe and Age of Iron by J.M. Coetzee. It is crucial that students prepare effectively for lectures and tutorials. This entails reading the prescribed texts and all secondary readings made available by the lecturers and tutors.

COURSE RULES AND GUIDELINES

Students are advised to consult their Student Handbooks for a detailed explanation of Rules, Guidelines and Requirements which should be applied within the Department of English. Students who are not in possession of a Student Handbook should obtain the Revised Edition available for purchase from the Faculty Bookshop in the Old Arts Building.

Please make a special note of the dates for the Test and the Essay Due Date, respectively. Only students whose applications meet departmental requirements, including a valid medical certificate covering the date of the Test, will be eligible to write the Aegrotat Test. You are reminded that the attendance of tutorials is compulsory. Tutors will be monitoring attendance and participation on a continuous basis.
